a Curve.

DEAD AND INJURED

(Special By Scripps-McRae.)
Princeton, Ill., Sept. 25.—Four stockmen were killed and five were seriously injured in a head end collision that occurred near here this morning between a passenger train and a stock train that was standing on a siding. The men injured and killed were all asleep in the caboose of the stock train when the accident occurred and all in the car were hurt.

On The Burlington
The accident occurred on the Burlington road near Madden at just day break and the men injured were Illinois stockmen on their way to Chicago with native cattle. The smash up happened at a curve, the passenger train coming upon the stock train just as it was entering a switch to clear the tracks.

The Dead and Injured
The dead are George Stuart, Winchester, Ill.; A. H. Canthers, Tablo Grove, Ill.; W. L. Collins, Bardolph, Ill.; A. H. Wagner, Prairie City, Ill.; and the most seriously injured are L. B. Wiley, Knoxville, Ill.; N. B. Johnson, Avon, Ill. The other injured are only slightly bruised and will recover, it is thought.

WHITE HOUSE IS NOW FIRE PROOF

Treasures of the Government Have Been Made Secure from Flames.

Washington, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Inasmuch as the new executive building is not fireproof, all the long treasured pieces of furniture belonging to the White House, and which were formerly in the President's offices, will be left in the executive mansion for safe keeping. President Roosevelt is having an office fitted up for his private use in the White House, and in it will be the massive oak table made from the timber of H. M. S. Resolute, and presented to the President of the United States in 1881.

Noted Vessel
The Resolute belonged to the British government, and was one of the fleet of vessels sent in search of Sir John Franklin's Arctic expedition. The Resolute was abandoned in the ice in 1854. In September of the following year it was sighted by an American ship, and was eventually presented by this government to Great Britain.

Willard O. Stiff of this city was the first recruit gained by the enlisting station which has just been established. Several others had applied but when Captain Frank B. McCoy arrived in Janesville this morning he found only one man ready to be administered the oath.

Captain McCoy was nevertheless well pleased with the number of applications that had been made, especially since it is probable that he will be obliged to return to the city tomorrow to swear in several others.

SENATORS FAVOR NASH CODE

Ohio Legislators Want Franchise
Question Investigated.

Columbus, O., Sept. 25.—Consideration of the Nash municipal code was completed by the Senate sitting as a committee of the whole. The bill was reported with the recommendation that it be passed, and a vote will be taken next Monday at noon. Few radical changes have been made in the Nash code by the Senate. The board plan of government for cities has been preserved. The Senate struck out the clause relating to franchises and adopted a resolution providing for the appointment by the governor of a bipartisan commission of four members to investigate the subject and report at the next session of the general assembly. An amendment was adopted providing that councilmen shall be allowed a salary of $100 per annum with $5 additional for each 1,000 inhabitants over 5,000.

STRIKE SITUATION HAS BECOME A MOST SERIOUS PROBLEM

More Troops Are Called Out, and Frequent Disturbances Have Been Reported During the Past Twenty-Four Hours, at Headquarters.

(Special By Scripps-McRae.)
Scranton, Pa., Sept. 25.—The situation throughout the anthracite coal district hourly grows more threatening and at last it has been realized that most stringent methods must be adopted to prevent riot rule throughout the whole valley. At Priceburg last night the mob made an attack upon the workings but were repulsed by the deputies.

Women With Babies
In the front rank of the strikers were women and children, many of the women carrying babies in their arms. The guards charged the mob with revolvers, but being unable to repulse the strikers without injuring the women and children retired behind the barricades. The mob became more daring and there was immediate danger of a serious outbreak when two companies of soldiers arrived and the crowd was scattered. Later three non-union men were attacked and badly beaten.

Many Are Assaulted
During the night many persons were assaulted by the strikers and fully fifty persons are reported as seriously injured. The troops are on duty on these treacherous and while martial law has not been declared still it is practically in force.

At Lebanon
At Lebanon the troops are in control of the city and the streets are very quiet owing to this fact. The negro strike breakers, who are the cause of the trouble are still here and it is thought that as long as they remain trouble will be imminent. Several companies of troops are kept in readiness to answer any call that may come from the surrounding country.

General Gobin's Opinion
General Gobin is reported to have stated that he did not consider it necessary to declare martial law in several of the districts as had been asked by the sheriffs as he felt that they were trying to shift the responsibilities off on him. He would, however, keep troops stationed at all the danger points but thought that the actual trouble could be averted if care was taken.

More Troops
Governor Stone has called out another regiment of troops and this makes the whole of the Third Brigade in the field. It is stated that if this is not a sufficient force to quell all disturbances that he will order out the Philadelphia brigade and part of the Second.

LITTLE TRAVEL

Americans Are Coming Home, But

Big Pond.

New York, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—While every westward bound ocean liner is carrying more passengers than can be comfortably accommodated, and while 15,000 Americans, now in Europe, are unable to secure any accommodations whatever, the number leaving this port is surprisingly small.

A fortnight ago the liner Kronprinz Wilhelm arrived here with the distinction of having brought over the biggest crowd of passengers, and tomorrow the Hohenzollern of the same line will sail with the smallest number ever taken out. Three passengers, L. Little of Jacksonville, Prof. Arnold of Berlin and Yvon Strauch of Pekin, will have the drawing room, smoking room, dining room, promenade deck and the servants of the big liner all to themselves.

THINKS MT. PELEE NOT DANGEROUS

Prof. Hill Would Establish an Observatory Near the Volcano to Watch It.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Prof. Robert Hill, the scientist sent by the geological survey to inspect and report on the destruction of Mount Pelee, is in favor of at once establishing an observatory on the slopes of Corbett, overlooking Pelee, from which studies could be made with perfect safety. He does not believe that the island will be annihilated. "The previous recent deaths were all within the zone of danger, coincident with the slopes of Mount Pelee proper, but the rest of Martinique, except villages at sea level in reach of tidal waves, is perfectly secure."

Advances Observations
Dr. Hill says a party should be sent to Martinique for a stay of some months, with spectroscopic, seismographs, chronographs, special photographic outfits, and everything else favorable and useful in a perfect report, to study the eruptions with special reference to their electrical, magnetic, gaseous, and other physical behavior. He insists that seismographic stations throughout the West Indies and our southern coastal plain, probably aided by our coast and geological surveys or weather bureau should be put in operation at once, as this is the most propitious time for the work.

WOUND IS HEALING

Plan to Finish the West-

Given Up.

TO COME NEXT YEAR

(Special By Scripps-McRae.)
Washington, D. C., Sept. 25.—There have been some slight changes in the condition of President Roosevelt since yesterday. While his temperature has changed still the physicians in charge say that it is not a discouraging sign and is due to the fact of his removal from the train to the White House as well as the present warm weather.

Wound Opened
The wound was opened last night and found to be progressing normally. Whether or not it will have to be opened again is not known but will develop later. The President is kept very quiet and none but the members of the cabinet and immediate family and the attendants are permitted to see him.

Next Year's Trip
All intention of finishing the present abandoned trip is over and the President will remain in Washington until after congress adjourns. He will then go west and afterwards pick up the cities he missed on the present trip.

PARAFFIN DISPUTE IS NOW ENDED

Trouble Between the Postoffice and Engraving Departments Is Ended Satisfactorily.

Washington, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—There has been a satisfactory settlement of the controversy between the postoffice department and the bureau of engraving and printing over the quality of paraffin paper used in the stamp books manufactured at the bureau, and the possibility of the annulment of the bureau's contract with the postoffice department and its transfer to the American Bank Note company, has disappeared. The officials of the bureau are now casting about for a grade of paraffin paper that will meet with the approval of the officials of the postoffice department.

No Change
When the inferiority of the paraffin paper was called to the attention of the bureau the officials at first refused to supply a more satisfactory grade, alleging that the bids of the bureau for manufacturing stamps and stamp books were so low as to preclude the possibility of a profit and stating further that the paper complained against answered all purposes as well as a higher grade. There was a report at the time that the American Bank Note company would get the contracts, but according to the acting postmaster general this report was without foundation.

BANNER WON BY JACKSON SCHOOL

GIVEN FIRST PLACE FOR SCHOOL YARD IMPROVEMENT.

JEFFERSON BUILDING SECOND

Twilight Club Committee Makes Its Report on the Annual Award of Prizes.

By the decision of the committee of award, appointed by the Twilight club, the banner for the greatest improvement in the appearance of public school yards, which is now held by the Adams school, will be the prize of the Jackson school for the coming year. The accompanying prize of $10, which goes to the janitor of the banner school, will be presented to Janitor George Viney, who has taken the deepest interest in the Spring Brook School.

The Jefferson school was given second place by the judges and the prize of $5 will be awarded to George Tole, janitor of the Jefferson school. In the report of the committee honor-able mention is given to the work at several of the other buildings.

Growth of Movement
The movement of school yard decoration was started by Supt. D. D. Mayne, one year ago last spring and endorsed by the Twilight club. In his plan, the banner was the principal prize, serving to incite teachers and pupils to beautify the school grounds. The cash prizes to the janitor were meant to be secondary and were offered to secure the cooperation of the janitors in caring for the grounds.

These facts have been lost sight of in Supt. Mayne's removal from the city and the report of the committee places first importance on the work of the janitors, making small mention of the banner which was designed as the honor to be coveted by every school in the city. Credit for the great improvement which has been made at all the buildings, during the past two summers belongs to teachers, pupils and janitors and even to interested citizens who have donated vines and shrubbery.

Committee of Award
The Twilight club committee consisted of Rev. Robert C. Denison, George F. Kimball and Francis C. Grant. In making the awards, permanent improvements such as shrubbery were taken into account as well as the present general beauty of appearance. The report which the committee has prepared to present to the Twilight club is as follows:

Committee's Report
To The Twilight Club: Your committee appointed to award the prizes to the janitors who had made the greatest improvement in their school yards between the spring and fall of 1902, reports as follows: We were especially gratified to note the general interest which has been taken in the matter of beautifying the schools. Something worth doing had been done at all of the buildings by the janitor, teachers and pupils, and your committee feel that, if this interest can be continued, a few years will work a complete transformation in all the school yards.

Pretty School Grounds
At the Adams school there were many signs of good work; the window boxes were well filled with flowers and bore evidence of good care. The small lawn in front of the building was well kept and the flower beds along the fences added much to the beauty of the grounds. The placing of the permanent vines on the front of the building we desire to commend.

At the Jefferson school we noticed especially the great variety of flowers in the beds and window boxes, the beds along the walks being particularly beautiful. The size of the lawn at this school makes its care a matter of considerable labor, but wherever the soil would permit conscientious work had evidently been performed, and with good results.

The Banner School
The Jackson school was a bower of beauty. From a bare and unsightly gravel heap the yard, front and rear, had been changed to a well grassed lawn. The front of the schoolhouse had been covered with vines, and pretty flowers were blooming all around it in beds close to the walls. Bushes, flower beds, and trees were tastefully placed, and in good condition. The building and grounds were a fine exhibition of what can be accomplished in one season, by interest, good taste and hard work, toward making beautiful surroundings for a school.

Needed Improvements
The Douglas school had many new window boxes made and painted by the janitor and some vines on the building which were well started this year, and will improve year by year. There were asters in bloom all along the fences on the west and north sides and in beds in front of the house. The cactus bean had been used to advantage also. This school is at a disadvantage on account of its gravel yard on which a lawn is almost an impossibility. The grounds are also crossed by passers-by, who like a short cut. If a few loads of black earth could be put into the yard and a portion of it set aside as a lawn its beauty would be greatly enhanced. Much has been done and well done at this school and its appearance is already greatly improved.

Trees and Shrubs
At the Grant school a large number of trees and shrubs had been planted; an excellent work, the full value of which will only be realized as time develops them. Fourteen boxes for flowers had been placed in the windows and the cactus bean used along the fence. This school has an excellent lawn.

At the Washington school, which in time will add much to its appearance. There were flowers in the beds in front of the school, and the lawn had been well mowed.

Teachers Commended
At the Douglas school the present janitor has been in charge only since September 1st, but in that short time had evidently done much to put the grounds in the best condition. The vines at the corners of the building, in the rear, on the fence, and around the large tree were pretty. The lawns at the northwest and southeast corners of the lot were well kept. The teachers of this building, as indeed the teachers in all of the schools are to be commended for their work.

At the Lincoln school there were twenty-four window boxes, all well filled with flowers. The plan at this school of having an outer strip of lawn enclose the playground is a good one. The fence had been covered with wild cucumber and morning-glory, and the lawn attended to carefully during the summer.

The committee would like especially to recommend for all the schools the planting of permanent shrubs and vines as far as possible.

Award of Prizes
After examination of all the yards the committee makes the following award: the prize of ten dollars to Mr. George Viney, the janitor of the Jackson school, and the banner to the same school; the second prize of five dollars to Mr. George Tole, janitor of the Jefferson school. The committee desires to continue the interest in this work, and to that end wishes to offer similar prizes of ten and five dollars to be awarded by a committee of the Twilight Club, to the janitors whose school yards show the greatest improvement between spring and fall of 1903.

Respectfully submitted, Robert C. Denison, George F. Kimball, Francis C. Grant.

MINSTRELS PLEASE A GOOD AUDIENCE

Catchy, Clean Work by the Haverly Troupe Makes a Refreshing Show.

Haverly's Minstrels made a decided hit at the Grand last night, competing with the enthusiastic applause of a large house. The olio was rich in strong numbers, catchy music, clever dancing, and laughable grinds and jokes. Music by an excellent orchestra added greatly to the performance, and the specialties introduced made a uniformly favorable impression. As was to be expected "Valse Me Again" Wilson was easily the favorite of the cast, and his songs and comedy monologues received frequent and merited applause.

Musical Sensation
"The Song I Heard One Sunday Morn'g" as sung by George Morgan, who has a wonderful contralto voice, made a decided sensation, and "The Sea is Calling To Me," by John J. Roland, was a feature of the musical numbers. The scenery used during the opening choruses was elaborate, and proclaimed the high standard of the entire production.

Clever Comedian
George Wilson's work was of a character that does not lend itself readily to description. At the first his cordial reception by the audience seemed to be based largely on his past fame, but he soon proved that the ovation was thoroughly deserved. The acrobatic achievements of the Young Brothers were of a grade far above that ordinarily seen on the minstrel stage, and the Danman troupe ranked with them.

PLAN TO AMEND THEIR BY-LAWS

Y. M. C. A. Directors Hold Monthly Meeting and Deal with Important Business Matters.

After three unsuccessful efforts to hold a meeting, the Y. M. C. A. board of directors met Tuesday evening and disposed of a quantity of business. Reports of the educational, social, religious and physical departments were made and approved. A gift of one hundred dollars was received. Most of the meeting was taken up by a general discussion of a proposed change in the management of the Y. M. C. A.

Heard Reports
Plans for the physical and educational departments had already been made and gone into effect, so that all that was done in regard to these matters was to ratify the action of the committee in charge. The religious and social plans for the winter are still unmaturing and no definite action was taken with them.

A draft for one hundred dollars was officially accepted at the meeting. The donor, whose name was not given for publication, made the gift in memory of his son who died in 1892.

No Building Plans
Owing to the absence of the chairman of the committee on the contemplated extension to the building, no report was made and the subject was not discussed.

Radical Changes
Within a short time a complete change will be brought about, affecting to a certain degree the financial system of the association, and other phases of the management. The proposed changes were the principal topic of the evening, and the reason for the failure to act upon the matter was the necessity of amending the by-laws, which requires that the proposed amendment be allowed to lay on the table for one week. A special meeting will be called which will doubtless affect the necessary changes. It is also necessary that a meeting of the association be called to act on the matter.

WAS BRILLIANT SOCIETY EVENT

H. E. KROPP, OF CHICAGO, WEDS MISS JOSEPHINE SATER.

PRETTY AUTUMNAL WEDDING

Ceremony is Performed by Dr. Beaton, of Chicago—Wedding Appointments Are Perfect.

Autumn's wealth of gorgeous hues lent itself to beautifying the surroundings amid which Miss Josephine Sater, of this city, became the wife of Herbert Edwin Kropp, of Chicago.

The ceremony which made these two happy young people husband and wife was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sater, 156 Pleasant street, last evening at six o'clock. Rev. Dr. Beaton, of Chicago, a Congregationalist pastor, was the officiating clergyman, and a brilliant assemblage of about sixty relatives and friends witnessed the happy event.

Gorgeous Decorations
The autumnal wedding was one of the most beautiful ever held in the city. The decorations, suggestive of the season of the year, were unusually artistic in conception and execution. Great trailers of woodbine with its rich coloring and bittersweet with its brilliant scarlet berries were used in profusion and a frieze of the graceful vines in the parlors was an especially pretty decorative detail.

In the back parlor, evergreen, wood-bine and bittersweet had been massed effectively in a canopy extending from the central chandeliers to the west window. Beneath this canopy the bride party stood against a background of potted palms and ferns. Smilax and cut flowers were also used in profusion, great bunches of roses, carnations and asters gracing the occasion with their beauty and fragrance.

Orchestra Plays March
Promptly at six o'clock the bride party entered the parlors to the exquisite melody of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by the Orpheus Mandolin orchestra. Softly the music continued throughout the impressive ceremony, the ring service being the one used. Miss Ada Sater, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and the groom was attended by his brother Carl Kropp, of Madison.

Exquisite Costumes
The bride's gown was a beautiful creation of white point d'esprit, with trimmings of applique lace and ruchings of white satin ribbon, made over an underslip of white peau de sole. The gown was especially becoming to the fair young beauty of the bride and she looked her prettiest as she stood at the marriage altar. Her maid of honor was also prettily gowned in white India silk over pink satin.

An Elaborate Feast
Following the ceremony came the extension of congratulations and then the elegant four-course wedding supper was served. The bridal table was handsomely decorated with white roses, ferns and smilax. Mrs. Louise Bowerman was the caterer and the guests were prettily waited upon by Misses Edith Loomis, Laura Bump, Alice Crawford, May Merritt, May Humphrey and Margaret Hamilton. Little Miss Mary Curtis had also assisted with the wedding festivities by waiting on the guests at the door on their arrival.

A Charming Bride
The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sater and is a charming young woman of pleasant personality and gracious manners. While only the past few years have been spent in this city, her former home, having been in Madison, she quickly became a favorite in society circles and she holds the sincere affection of a large circle of friends.

Will Live in Chicago
The groom is as popular with his host of acquaintances as is his fair bride. He is a young man of sterling worth and genial disposition, having the faculty of winning friends easily and of retaining them. He holds a responsible position in the office of the firm of Kropp & Fudelson, of Chicago. He has a handsomely furnished home on Addison avenue on the north side where he and his wife will go to housekeeping on their return from the extended eastern trip on which they left last evening.

Costly Presents
The bride was the recipient of the most magnificent wedding gifts, the display of cut glass and silver being especially fine. Her father presented her with a check for $500 to be used for the purchase of a piano. Some fine pictures, choice pieces of Battenburg and a large brass candelabra from some of her girl friends are also treasured gifts.

Wedding Guests
Among the wedding guests from out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Kropp, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Seavert, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Johnson, Miss Anna E. Johnson, Miss Ethel R. Robinson and Joseph F. Johnson, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kropp, Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph R. Kropp, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kropp, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Swanson, George H. Bartlett, Miss Edna Swanson, Melvin H. Sater, Carl Kropp, August Panack, Arthur Johnson, Henry Carpenter and Roy Bartlett, Madison; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rancus, Fond du Lac.

CHANGE IN LAWS OF REGISTRATION

Voters To Be Listed According to Street, Not Alphabetically as in the Past.

The attention of the voters is called to the fact that hereafter on account of a change in the registration laws, voters will be registered by their street number, instead of in alphabetical order as heretofore. Under this law the registration laws will have to undergo a thorough revision, and every voter should see to it on registration days that his name is on the list and his residence correctly given. Before the registration lists were revised from year to year from the old lists but this year they will all have to be changed and the names listed according to their street numbers. In making these changes some names are liable to be omitted and every voter should see that his name is registered.

LITTLE DAMAGE TO TOBACCO

CROP THIS YEAR IS ALL EXCEL-LENT QUALITY.

MORE RIDING THAN USUAL

Fewer Contracts Have Been Made
Early in the Season Than Formerly.

The tobacco harvest of 1902 is now a thing of the past and almost the entire crop was secured without any damage of any consequence. The crop as a whole is one of the best ever raised in Wisconsin and the dealers are not slow in realizing it. Buyers from all parts of the country have been riding the growing districts for the last two weeks and a large amount of the leaf has been purchased.

This year, however, the buyers have done more riding taking more time to examine the crops than formerly. The reason that less contracts have been closed this year than in other seasons is twofold, one is that the buyers have taken more time and are trying to buy the crop at a few cents less than the growers ask. The other is the growers are averse to signing contracts for future delivery and prefer to wait and see what they are going to have to deliver. The trouble of other years on delivery day is still on their minds.

At present the crop is not cured and is in no condition to market. So many contingencies arise before the crop is ready for market that no one can foretell what the crop will be worth when ready for delivery.

Selling Readily
The crop, however, is selling fairly and a large number of buyers are in the field. The feeling among the buyers is that the crop ought to be purchased for about 8 cents and few are paying more than this price for it. The question that bothers the buyers most is what the future market will be and whether they will be able to dispose of their holdings after it has been handled and packed for enough to pay them for their work. It is no trouble to buy the crop, but to buy at a figure that will give them a profit when they come to sell is another proposition.

Frost
The frosts of a week ago really did more damage to the corn than to the tobacco. Very little of the leaf was still in the field and what remained out was hurriedly cut, placed in piles before the frost came. The warmer weather that ensued after the frost, and the rains have been of great benefit to the curing leaf in the sheds.

Sales Made
The Wisconsin Tobacco Reporter gives the following list of sales that have come to their notice: Jens Finness, 12a at 8 1/2 & 2c; Geo. N. Campbell, 12a at 8c; Anthony Anderson, 12a at 8 & 2c; Hans Lund, 12a at 8c; John Simonson, 16a at 7 1/2 & 2c; Gust Aas, 12a at 8 & 2c; O. Wixom, 9a at 8 & 2c; O. L. Gard, 8a at 8 & 2c; Gunner Olson, 7a at 7 1/2 & 2c; John Brauhaug, 8a at 8c; Carl Hippe, 7a at 8c; Lars Nelson, 4a at 8 & 2c; Mrs. Smith-back, 8a at 8 & 2c; Jaul Jensen, 6a at 8 & 2c. While the prices realized are not as high as in some seasons they insure the growers a good profit. With the big yield which most fields produce farmers selling at the present figures are pretty sure to receive close to $125 per acre. One of the best sales coming to notice so far this season is that of State Treasurer J. O. Davidson of Soldiers' Grove, whose ten-acre crop was sold at 11 cents. The most active buyers now operating are those of the American Cigar company, which has a force of thirty or more men in the field, and those of the United Cigar Manufacturers.

Market for Old Goods
The market for old goods shows some improvement and there is quite a demand for the export grades and some fair sized orders have been received. The sampling of the 1901 crop shows it to be sound and in good shape generally but in some cases it is not as thoroughly cured as in other years.

Leaf Report
The general leaf market is weathering a troublous sea. Of course, everybody's packing of last year's crops was the cleanest, soundest and the most perfect imaginable; but anyhow, the cursed buyers who crowded our market during the latter part of last and the first week of this month and who took the word and assurances of the packers as to the "soundness and cleanness" of their packings are reported to be getting rather ugly in their complaints and kicks about the goods purchased and in their demands for allowances for—we dare not pronounce that excommunicated term lest we be excommunicated ourselves as at least a dozen of our most reputable merchants, whose word is as good as their bond, have assured us that they have never packed any sounder or cleaner goods than from last year's crop.

All these troubles, however, do not impair the selling power of the market. Connecticut broad leaf had its innings the past week, and is selling from 33 to 35 cents, running. Several lots of wrappers sold at 50 cents, while seconds bring a quarter. And they sell with and without a string. But the greater demand is for binder leaf, and the prediction made a year ago that 1900 Wisconsin would fetch 20 cents and 22 cents is now literally verified.

In the meantime Sumatra is proving most from our domestic wrapper troubles. It is beginning to sell again in lots over five and ten bales and if importers are willing to make sacrifices as to price and terms hundred bale lots would again be no novelty. Last year's crop seems to give thorough satisfaction as to yield and colors.

The Havana market here remains for the present stationary. In the city of Havana the market seems to be booming to judge from the creditable reports of our Havana correspondent.

Ohio
Harvesting is nearly over on the tobacco farms here and from general reports it is estimated that the crop is about twenty-five per cent greater than last year's yield. The character of the leaf is generally regarded as good, a slight damage from drought being the only injury which affected the crop. This locality has enjoyed better tobacco growing weather than has been reported from any other cigar leaf growing section, especially toward the last, when conditions were such that full ripening could not be permitted without danger from the elements. Business, however, is not as active as was expected, and sales of the new leaf are quoted only occasionally. Buyers do not seem to be disposed to pay the high prices which ruled last year in the attempt to corner the crop, and farmers fail to understand why their crops, claimed to be better than those of 1901, are not worth at least as much money as the yield of twelve months ago. It is probable that there will have to be mutual concessions before there will be much briskness in the market.

New York.
The warning conveyed by the appearance of light frosts in this section has been heeded by tobacco growers, who are now devoting all their energies to housing their crops before a more damaging visitation. It is admitted that a little more ripening would be beneficial, but the unusually cold summer followed by the promise of a very early fall has frightened the farmers, and they will take the chance of their leaf coming out all right rather than risk almost certain loss by storm or frost. This condition makes the situation so uncertain that although there are plenty of buyers here, there have been practically no purchases of the new leaf. Old leaf on the other hand commands a ready sale, buyers evidently preferring tobacco whose actual condition is known. About 500 cases were sold during the week at prices not varying much from thirteen cents.

Connecticut Valley.
As usual, every farmer in this vicinity has the best crop of tobacco he ever raised, and so sure is he of that fact that he is refusing all offers which do not meet his ideas of value, which it may be stated, run from fifty to one hundred per cent over last year's prices. He also refuses to sell except upon a written contract of his own design, and requires a substantial cash deposit before he will affix his signature. Under the circumstances it is not surprising that purchases are not overplentiful. The leaf is now practically all harvested and the crop is greater than last year's yield, because there were many more acres planted. As regards its quality nothing definite can be determined, but the consensus of opinion is that the leaf is larger and better than the 1901 goods and is curing a lighter color. However, old goods are by no means a drug on the market, which is not overstocked. Tengerown tobacco is said to be doing as well as could be expected, but the experimental methods of harvesting, tying and curing being tried by growers make a general estimate impossible.

A Shrewd Trick.
According to Tobacco, of London, England, the desire to obtain the cash bonuses so generously distributed by the American and Imperial tobacco companies, and at the same time keep a full line of the goods of both companies in stock, has led to a number of small combinations among British retailers with results entirely satisfactory to them if not to the two companies interested. The plan is illustrated by that of two retailers, one of whom had signed the British paper and the other the American document, who agreed to purchase for one another the goods each required from the combines, both ordering double supplies from headquarters for this purpose. In this way both were able to secure bonuses on the whole of their purchases. Just how to stop this little maneuver does not appear obvious. To await the return of one bonus as "compensation money" is too slow.—United States Tobacco Journal.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Janesville the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache suffered, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

Mr. John Stetson, of Hotel Myers day clerk, says: "A physician pronounced my trouble kidney complaint. If the severe pain across the small of my back is any indication of the said complaint, I guess I had it. For two years I suffered with attacks, sometimes virulent, sometimes a dull grinding ache, which robbed me of considerable energy. I used in addition to doctor's prescriptions, several preparations said to be sure cures for kidney complaint, but up until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the People's Drug Co's drug store, I received little if any permanent relief. I took a thorough course of treatment prescribed by Doan's Kidney Pills and it cured me. Up to date I have not noticed any recurrence of my old trouble."

BAD WEATHER IS NOT ENCOURAGING

BELOIT STREET FAIR POORLY ATTENDED THUS FAR.

THE FREE SHOWS ARE GOOD

People in General Are Disappointed Over the Rainy Week Chosen.

Damp, cold weather has proved a severe detriment to the World's Free Fair and Jahrmak of Beloit. On no day this week has the attendance approximated the numbers that were confidently expected by the management, and yet it has not been generally felt that the carnival itself has been responsible for the lack of patronage. The shows have been pronounced clean and wholesome, and several of them have real merit.

Attractions Offered
Among the shows which are offered by the street fair company, of which Fisk and Snyder are the managers, are several that have been able to hold a number of crowded performances each day. Lunette has proved a good attraction and the Ghost Show has been equally attractive to those carnival goers who have braved the inclement weather. Balloon ascensions have been given daily, a balancing act by Holloway, and a cycle wheel are also free to the public.

Put in Lock-Up
One of the freaks which was offered for public gaze upon the payment of a small admission fee was a "half-man-half-woman" which was very popular at the outset of the week. Unfortunately a part of the proceeds which were taken in were used by the freak for fire water and the man half of it became uproariously drunk, creating such a disturbance that the police transferred it to the calaboose. The monstrosity will not be put on exhibition again.

PRETTY WEDDING AT EMERALD GROVE

Former Playmates in Pennsylvania Are United in Marriage in Wisconsin.

On Tuesday morning at six o'clock a pretty home wedding occurred at the Congregational parsonage in Emerald Grove, the contracting parties being Miss Lottie V. Wingrove, of Sonixburg, Pa., and Norval L. Fulton, of Beloit, brother of Mrs. Frances Herbert at whose home the ceremony took place. Rev. Joseph Herbert, brother-in-law of the groom was the officiating clergyman and the bride and groom were attended by Miss Mary Herbert and William Herbert, Margaret, Helen and Isabelle Herbert served prettily as flower girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulton went directly to housekeeping in Beloit. He and his bride spent their childhood in adjoining homes in Indiana county, Pa., and for some time past the bride, who is an orphan, has been a guest at the Emerald Grove home of Rev. and Mrs. Herbert.

Daniels-Dutcher.
Miss Eva May Daniels of this city and Frank Dutcher of Peabody, Kansas, were happily married last evening at 8 o'clock, the ceremony being performed at the home of Raymond E. Warren, 110 Park street. Rev. J. H. Tippet, pastor of the Court street M. E. church was the officiating clergyman and although only the immediate members of the household were witnesses of the ceremony the wedding was a very pretty one. The parlors were beautifully decorated with cut flowers and an elegant wedding supper was served. The bride is very well known in this city where she has been engaged in the dressmaking business for several years. She will take with her to her new home the best wishes of a host of friends.

PUTNAM'S STORE TO BE REMODELED

New Front is To Be Put in Entirely of Glass with a Steel Frame.

J. M. Bostwick has let the contract to Love Brothers of Aurora, for putting in a steel front to Putnam's store which will change the appearance of the building materially. The vestibule now at the entrance to the store will be done away with and glass fronts with steel fittings will extend from one wall to the other, across both store fronts flush with the sidewalk, with one large door in the center, giving them an immense show window for each store.

Like Chicago Stores
The front will be similar to the big stores in Chicago, the steel fittings being so made that the front has the appearance of one large plate of glass. There will be no wood work about the windows and they are so arranged that they give about six inches more of floor space inside the stores. The brick partition will be removed for a distance back, of ten feet, which will give a fifteen foot space between the door and the wall dividing the two stores. When this work is completed Putnam will have one of the most modern and up-to-date stores in the city.

Similar Work
Love Brothers have just completed two jobs of this kind in Rockford, one for Smouse Bros. and the other for Worthen Bros. They started on the Putnam job this morning.

GOVERNMENT USES NO STONE WORK

FOUNDATION OF POSTOFFICE IS TO BE OF CEMENT.

RAIN DELAYS THE DIGGING

Brick-Layers Will Go to Work on Monday Next and Rush Things.

There will be no stone in the foundation for the new post office. A footing of concrete about two and half feet thick will first be laid and a foundation of brick will be placed on top of it. This form of foundation is considered superior to stone foundations by the government.

Rain Delays
Mr. Yeager has been delayed somewhat by the rain but has the excavation about completed. About all that now remains to be done in the way of excavating is the digging of the trenches for the concrete footings, which will be of cement and crushed stone. He stated that he expected to have everything in readiness by next Monday morning to start the concrete work. As soon as this is completed a large force of brick layers will be put at work on the foundation.

CITY OFFICIALS ARE ALL MOVED

Old Rooms To Be Made Into Sleeping Quarters for the Firemen.

City Treasurer Fathers and City Clerk Hauger moved their belongings yesterday afternoon into their new quarters and today are ready for business. A few things still remain to be moved from the old offices and as soon as everything is out of the way the rooms will be refitted and made into sleeping apartments for the members of the fire department.

A Good Change
The change will be appreciated by the members of the department as it gives them fine airy sleeping rooms which is something that they have not had before. Chief Engineer Klein has been assigned a room directly in front of the stairs on the first landing of the new city hall. It is a large and well lighted room and will give the chief handsome and commodious quarters, with plenty of room for his electrical appliances.

Work On Cages
Chief Hogas has about half of the cells in place in the new lock-up. It is a tedious job putting the cages together as they have to be riveted in a large number of places.

Talk is Rife of Establishing a League with a Regular Series of Games.

The local bowling season will be formally opened Friday night at 8 o'clock at Hockett's alleys on North Main street. Although early in the season considerable interest has been manifested in the game by the local bowlers and many of them are already in first class shape to roll a good match. In order to get a line on some of the players a local match has been arranged for Friday night. Those who will take part in the matches are H. Biber, T. Nolan, G. Baumann, H. Rice, D. Higgins, Ed. Baumann, Dr. Whitcomb, Dr. Leslie and W. McCue.

Form League
It is the intention of Mr. Hockett, to get as many of the local bowlers as possible interested in the game and form four or five teams into a bowling league, on the same plan as in larger cities. A series of match games will be arranged and some handsome prizes will be given by Mr. Hockett to the team having the highest average at the end of the season or at the end of a certain number of games.

STOCK EXCHANGE PANIC AVERTED

BANKS DEMAND BIG INTEREST

Force Speculators to Pay High Rates for Use of Money and in Many Cases Refuse to Make Loans on Listed Stocks.

New York, Sept. 25.—J. Pierpont Morgan and the millions which he controls prevented panicky conditions in the stock market yesterday when the situation was beginning to cause serious alarm among the most conservative men. The policy of the banks in calling loans and forcing liquidation had caused such widespread alarm that Mr. Morgan determined to act promptly.

After an informal conference with his partners and John D. Rockefeller, who is a close ally of the great financier, Mr. Morgan scattered buying orders throughout the market and succeeded in stemming the tide that at one time threatened disaster. Mr. Morgan and the Standard Oil interests allied with him are said to have bought more than 200,000 shares of stock.

Gould and Harriman Sell. The Gould and Harriman syndicates again were credited with being the heaviest sellers. All their pools dumped great blocks of stock on the market, which the Morgan syndicate was compelled to absorb. It is said that John D. Rockefeller has greatly increased his holding of Missouri Pacific.

The heaviest declines were in Atchafalpa, Lackawanna, Missouri Pacific, St. Paul, Illinois Central and Union Pacific, but all of these stocks subsequently rallied to some extent on the buying of the Morgan brokers.

Gates Disposes of Stock.

John W. Gates also is said to have been one of the heaviest sellers. Through his brokers here he is credited with having sold out large blocks of Chesapeake and Ohio, Reading, Atchafalpa and Union Pacific. Early last week the firm of Harris, Gates & Co. predicted a slump in the market and advised their customers to sell stock. Chicago houses joined with Mr. Gates. It is said that John W. Gates and his friends sold more than 200,000 shares of stock within the last week.

Interest Rates High.

The banks continued their policy of calling loans to provide money for shipment out of town. Call money rose to 25 per cent in the afternoon, the highest price during the present stringency. The lowest price was 9 per cent. Most loans were made at 16 per cent. Time loans, however, were easily obtained at 6 per cent, plus 1 per cent commission. Little was done in mercantile paper, though the rate was nominally 6 per cent. The banks seemed determined to penalize speculation.

Banks Refuse Loans.

At the opening of the market there was a general assault on values. When brokers went to the banks to find out whether they could obtain money further credit in many instances was refused. They were told they must sell their stocks and convert them into cash. Several banks said they were loaded up to their limit on call loans. This attitude of the banks thoroughly discouraged many brokers. Customers were called upon for more margin and the situation looked serious at one time.

Just about noon the Morgan brokers received their orders to buy. Van Amburg & Atterbury got the first order directly from Mr. Morgan. Other brokers almost immediately received similar instructions.

Tide Turns.

The result was electrical. The bears lost their aggressiveness. The bulls gathered fresh courage. The Morgan and Rockefeller millions and turned the tide. Small sellers rushed to buy back their stocks at the declines and up to 2 o'clock the market steadily regained lost ground.

There was another money flurry late in the afternoon, accompanied by a rush to take profits. This caused more declines, though the closing prices were in nearly every instance much above the low prices of the day. Many stocks showed an actual net gain over the day preceding.

Mishawaka, Ind., Sept. 25.—Avery W. Belmont, aged 82, and his wife, aged 85, were victims of three robbers. They are an eccentric couple, wealthy and with a strong aversion to banking institutions. Their home was entered by three masked men, and because Belmont and his wife declined to reveal the hiding places of their cash they were bound and tortured. After a long search the wretches found $800 and departed. It is said about $3,000 was concealed about the house. The old couple were not released until hours after.

BIG LUMBER DEAL COMPLETED

Hines Company Buys Millions of Feet in Wisconsin.

Hayward, Wis., Sept. 25.—Through a purchase just made by the Edward Hines Lumber Company of Chicago the big fleet of lumber-carrying craft of that firm will find steady work next season. The Northern Wisconsin Lumber Company's plant at this place has been purchased by the Chicago concern, together with 40,000,000 feet of timber. To this the Hines company has added 300,000,000 feet standing in territory adjacent to the Hayward mill, and shipping will commence next season. Figures available at this time indicate that 250,000,000 feet of lumber will be sawed for the Hines company at the head of Lake Superior this season. The company owns one big mill and has contracted for the output of five others, shipping from Duluth, Washburn, Superior, Two Harbors and Ashland.

DOCTOR DIES OF A DOG'S BITE

Detroit Physician Takes Hydrophobia Four Months After Accident.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 25.—Dr. George E. Metcalf, a prominent veterinary surgeon of this city, died at Harper hospital from hydrophobia. Four months ago the doctor was bitten on one of the thumbs by a dog he was treating, but he paid no attention to what seemed merely a laceration of the skin, which soon healed. The doctor became ill and soon symptoms developed which showed him the nature of the disease. He sent for his brother, Dr. W. F. Metcalf, and told him the situation, requesting that he stand by him until the end and not permit any of his family to see his last agony.

ROOSEVELT WILL AGAIN VISIT WEST

FORCED VACATION IRRITATES

President Is Annoyed That a Shin Bruise Should Force Him to Abandon His Trip, but He Will Complete His Journey.

Washington, Sept. 25.—President Roosevelt reached Washington in an unhappy frame of mind because a slight abscess had forced him to abandon his western trip. The train reached here on time, and President Roosevelt was borne from the train by his physicians.

The president has abandoned all his trips planned for this fall, but he stated that as soon as congress adjourns he will go to the Pacific coast and visit every city he intended to visit during the trip just abandoned.

When the president was dressed, Dr. Lang lifted him bodily from the bed, while Dr. Rixey and Dr. Urey supported the patient's leg. In this way the president was carried out of the car down the steps to the platform, where he was placed in a wheeled chair and conveyed to his carriage, in which sat Mrs. Roosevelt, and was driven to the temporary White house.

Makes Light of Illness.

There was a large crowd on the station platform and the president watched it with the utmost concern. He looked into the anxious and sympathetic faces, shook his head, and laughed. "I'm not nearly so bad off as I look," he said.

Mrs. Roosevelt was the only occupant of the carriage besides the president. The cabinet officers and 13 surgeons followed in other carriages. Except for a guard of half a dozen bicycle policemen there was nothing to attract any attention to the president's carriage as it went through the persons had gathered in Lafayette square and watched the president carried up into the temporary White house.

Must Keep Quiet.

After reaching the temporary residence the president was made comfortable. He was suffering no pain and his greatest discomfort seemed to be that he was required by his physicians to remain quietly in a reclining position, and was not allowed to move about the apartment.

Mr. Cortelyou emphasized the fact, in answer to a question, that the president's condition is no worse than has been represented, and that the whole truth has been told in the official statements.

Attorney General Knox called, and he chatted for some time with the president. No other person was admitted.

President Roosevelt made the journey from Indianapolis in great comfort of body, his leg being bolstered up on pillows.

Regrets Abandoning Trip.

During the long ride across Pennsylvania and Maryland he spoke to his traveling companions again and again of his annoyance that so trifling an injury as a shin bruise should have kept him from fulfilling his engagements in the far western states. He said he had looked forward to that trip with the most pleasant anticipation. The northwest has particular ties for him; he spent much of his youth there; he raised the nucleus of his Spanish war regiment there; he feels that the western states were more than any other responsible for his nomination to the vice presidency, and therefore for his present eminence. He speaks almost irritably of the disappointment that the abandonment of the trip had caused him.

Children

Have "eyes bigger than their stomachs," according to an old saying. They overeat themselves, and are tempted by all sorts of injurious and indigestible edibles. As a consequence the foundation of serious stomach trouble is often laid in childhood.

For children with "weak" digestion or whose stomachs are diseased, Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery may be confidently recommended. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, so that the nourishment contained in food is perfectly assimilated and the puny child is built up by food into a condition of robust health.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains neither alcohol nor narcotics. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition.

Mrs. Ella Gardner, of Waterville, Middlesex Co., Va., writes: "My little daughter is enjoying splendid health. I am glad I found a doctor who could cure my child. Whenever she feels badly I give her Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and she is soon all right. She took twelve bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' eight bottles of 'Pell's,' and one bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and she is well. We thank God for your medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
